ALLEGHENY COUNTY AIRPORT AUTHORITY ANNOUNCES HOLIDAY CHORAL PROGRAM

• NEW THIS YEAR: LIVE PIANIST FOR MORNING DEPARTURES

PITTSBURGH, PA (December 1, 2008) – If you are flying this holiday season, there is a good chance you will get to enjoy beautiful music and singing at the airport.

The Choral Concert Program at Pittsburgh International Airport is underway. The program features many local schools and youth music groups. Volunteer Bianca Brown and the Airport Authority's Communications Department coordinate the project.

The groups are performing on the Ticketing Level of the Landside Terminal. So even if you are going to the airport to pick someone up or drop someone off, you can still enjoy the sounds of the season and some of the area's best young talent.

New this year, the Airport Authority has joined with Claudia Sanchez, the Passionate Pianist, to present piano entertainment for early morning departures at Pittsburgh International Airport. Ms Sanchez of Indiana, PA, will treat passengers and visitors with ambient live piano music to create a pleasant and enjoyable atmosphere during the busy holiday season. For more information on Claudia, visit www.PassionatePianist.com.

When: Wednesday, December 3 to Monday, December 22, except Tuesdays and Sundays

Time: Always from 6:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.

Where: Ticketing Level of the Landside Terminal

Passionate Pianist Daily Program:

Claudia has prepared a very special repertory and will play a different style each day. Choose your favorite one and come enjoy.
